

Put the fun into office fundraising

We've put together some ideas to maximise your Stray Over fundraising for Battersea's dogs and cats. You know your office better than we do, so don't be afraid to think outside the box and put your own spin on things.

Think big

These larger-scale events should help you raise bigger chunks of money towards your total.

Bake it 'til you make it

Whether it's dog shaped doughnuts, cat cupcakes or good old-fashioned brownies, a bake sale always goes down a storm.

And the winner is...

Everyone loves a pub quiz, so why not organise one in your local area? It could even have a dog and cat theme to really get people behind your cause.

Currency collecting

Ask your friends and family to donate any foreign currency they have lying around at home, you can then change this up and add it to your fundraising pot.

Give up a vice

Can't function without your first cup of coffee? Show people you're serious about fundraising by giving up a vice in return for donations.

Get on social

Let people know what you're up to and why on your social media accounts. Don't forget to ask your family and friends to share your cause far and wide. Remember to use #StrayOver
